Chiang Advised To Quit As President Of China

Battle Expected For GOP Control

By JACK BELL

Washington, Dec. 15 (P)—A struggle for control of Republican party machinery loomed today with reports that Carroll Reece may challenge National Chairman Hugh Scott in a comeback attempt.

Scott, a Philadelphia congressman, replaced Reece as chairman last June when Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York won the party's presidential nomination.

Although Scott has given every indication he intends to fight to hold his job, Dewey's November defeat has produced a crop of prospective opponents.

Besides Reece, others mentioned include Rep. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who is retiring from congress; Tom Coleman, former Wisconsin state chairman and a supporter of Harold E. Stassen, and Senator John Cooper of Kentucky, defeated for reelection.

Backers of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio were credited with having engineered Reece's election to the party helm in 1946.

So Taft's return from a European trip is being awaited not only for his views on the party chairmanship and possible reorganization of the GOP senate leadership, but on a party policy conference suggested yesterday by Scott.

Increased Old Age Pensions Predicted

Governor-Elect Favors $60 Monthly Maximum

Lansing, Dec. 15 (P)—Indications mounted today that Governor-elect Williams will recommend the maximum old age assistance grant in Michigan be boosted from $50 to $60 a month.

Williams conferred yesterday with State Controller John A. Perkins and Budget Director D. J. McNeill and planned further conferences today.

He told reporters he had made the budget chiefs a recommendation on old age assistance to be included in their budget draft for the 1949 legislature but he declined to disclose what it was.

He said the budget staff appeared to have the new budget draft "pretty well worked out" and that he had suggested only a few changes. The old age assistance change was the only one he would disclose.

Budget department sources said that a $10 a month increase in the maximum O.A.A. grant would cost the state about $3,200,000 a year.

In addition, Williams in his campaign and since has pointed at a demand that legislature repeal the so-called "recovery" law which permits the state to recover old age assistance payments from the estates of deceased recipients. The purpose of the law was to force dilatory relatives to support aged persons under penalty of losing their inheritances.

Leaders At Nanking Trying To Salvage Remnants Of Nation

Peace Deal With Reds Believed Near

By SPENCER MOOSA

Peiping, Dec. 15 (P)—There no longer is any doubt in Peiping that peace talks are in progress as the Chinese Communists slowly surround this ancient city.

Virtually everyone is convinced that talks between the Reds and Gen. Fu Tsu-yi, Nationalist commander, actually are going on at this moment.

Peiping In Nutcracker

In Nanking, reliable sources said President Chiang Kai-shek is studying recommendations by his top advisors that he surrender control of the government—probably to open the way for peace talks with the Communists. There was no indication that he would do so, despite much pressure.

The Reds have Peiping in an iron nutcracker. What chance Fu might have had to escape a week or two ago he has lost now.

One strong force of Communists is moving toward the paralyzed Peiping-Tientsin railroad from the east through Paot, 40 miles north of Tientsin.

Another Red force, also from the east, has by-passed Peiping and is striking southward. It apparently intends to swing eastward to form a junction, which probably will be effected near Langfang on the railroad 30 miles southeast of Peiping.

Escape Route Cut

Meanwhile, smaller Red forces are striking at different points nearer Peiping—particularly on the north and northwestern outskirts. Several villages near the famed summer palace were under attack during the night.

Sporadic gunfire again was audible inside the city.

Observers previously thought that General Fu, the government's commander of all North China forces, had some strategy up his sleeve. They're disillusioned now.

His escape route—the Peiping-Kalgan railroad—is almost entirely in the hands of the Communists. His supply line—the Peiping-Tientsin railway—is cut.

There is no doubt here that peace talks have been progressing for some time. The main point at issue apparently remains Communist insistence that Fu be satisfied with a place in a coalition government while Fu wants to retain his military strength.

Fu is reportedly angry at the

Israel Faces Delay In Bid For UN Seat

Tough Cases Up Before Security Council

Paris, Dec. 15 (P)—Russia cast her twenty-ninth veto in the United Nations security council today to keep Ceylon out of the United Nations.

The veto was Russia's second on Ceylon's membership bid. The Soviets now have used 13 of their 29 vetoes in the council to bar seven countries from membership.

Before turning to the vote on Ceylon, the council put off action on Israel's membership application until Friday.

The council adjourned after the vote on Ceylon. The next meeting was scheduled for Friday morning.

The French motion to postpone action on Israel until Friday carried with eight votes.

The council also accepted a suggestion from December President Fernand Van Langenhove of Belgium to postpone discussion of the Hyderabad complaint against India until next month at Lake Success.

The vote followed a bitter attack on Israel's bid by Syria's Faris El Khouri who called Jewish soldiers "gangsters." He did not oppose the French motion, however.

Judges Disqualified In Atlanta Suit For Slot Machine Losses

Atlanta, Dec. 15 (P)—A man bringing suit to recover $3,640,000 in alleged slot machine losses yesterday found himself stymied—all the judges in Fulton (Atlanta) Superior court disqualified themselves.

Judge Virlyn B. Moore ordered the suits stricken from the docket until a judge can be brought in from another county.

John L. Moore of Atlanta brought suit against four Atlanta clubs under a 1933 law which allows any citizen to sue to recover gambling losses—his own or those of other persons—if the actual losers do not sue in six months.

The clubs have filed answers that the suits are "too vague and indefinite."

The cases came up before Judge Moore yesterday. He disqualified himself as a member of one of the clubs. Then, in turn, the six other judges of the court also disqualified themselves for the same reason.

Bad Sleet Storm Hits Ionia Area

(By the Associated Press)

A severe sleet storm hit western and central Michigan early today, toppling trees, isolating towns and closing schools and industries.

Harshest hit was the Ionia area. The city's public schools closed, sending 2,000 children home.

Factories were forced to shut down when power lines went out.

The city was receiving only emergency water supplies and its fire alarm system was dead.

There were no electric lights.

The Ionia Sentinel-Standard lacked power to print its daily newspaper.

It was described as the worst sleet storm in many years, extending through Pewamo, Hubberton, Carson City and Matheson. Thirty percent of rural telephone lines were down and most electric lines to farms were damaged.

Autos Line Ditches

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. said 18 communities were isolated from long distance service as a result of failure of its lines or those of connecting independent exchanges.

They were Casnovia, Sparta, White Cloud, Greenville, Belding, Grattan, Byron Center, Fremont, Grant, Alma, Carson City, Coopersville, Conklin, Edmore, Lakewood, Mt. Pleasant, Orleans and Woodland.

At Grand Rapids, streets and alleys were blocked by 500 fallen trees. Calvin College dismissed classes for lack of power.

Air lines and bus companies cancelled departures in some directions.

Near Lowell, about 15 cars were reported lining ditches after they slid from the pavement.

Trees were felled in the Muskegon area where utility poles also were dragged down by the weight of ice on wires. Power breaks were reported in Muskegon and Fremont, and in Ottawa and Oceana counties.

Ada, Cascade and Sunfield, near Grand Rapids, were without power briefly when two main lines of Consumers Power Company collapsed.

Spies Steal U. S. Military Secrets

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Washington, Dec. 15 (P)—A man suspected of stealing and handing over to Russia pre-war army secrets of "great military significance" may be haled before the congressional spy hearings later this week.

The secrets are supposed to have come out of the Aberdeen proving ground on Chesapeake Bay north of Baltimore. There was no immediate hint as to their nature beyond the claim that they included "formulae, descriptions and leading information involving our hitting and our defensive costs."

Arrangements were made for a New York grand jury into coming out with indictments "of all guilty parties" connected with a Soviet espionage ring that was, in committee words, "aided and abetted by officials and employees of our own government."

3. Arrangements were made for a secret publication of all but four of the secret papers obtained from Whittaker Chambers, former Communist courier. The four are still regarded by the state department as likely to injure national security, but the others will be released in batches starting tomorrow.

4. The committee tried to prod the House Un-American Activities Committee into action on charges of "exercising the full authority of its subpoena powers and the other authorities granted it by Congress."

That appeared to be notice to the justice department that the committee is waiting only 24 hours more for a chance to summon chambers and other key witnesses for questioning. They have been tied up in the New York grand jury's espionage inquiry.

Convict Confesses Beheading In Texas

Murder Charge Filed In Mess Hall Slaying

Angleton, Tex., Dec. 15 (P)—Texas prison system General Manager O. B. Ellis said a murder charge will be filed here against the convict who confessed to beheading another prisoner in the Retriever prison farm mess hall.

Ernest Cleve Jones, 33, yesterday told farm Warden I. K. Kelley he killed Clarence William Redwine, 38, Monday night after Redwine twice had threatened to kill him.

Redwine was slain as 200 inmates of the farm fled from the mess hall following the evening meal.

A minor disturbance at the opposite end of the mess hall had attracted attention of guards at the time.

Kelley said Jones confessed voluntarily.

The warden said Jones, a kitchen worker, said in his confession that he took the knife from the kitchen and cut Redwine's head off after the latter threatened "to get me when we went back to the tank" (dormitory).

The driver, Edward J. Laskowski, 44, a bartender, was taken into custody by police as he was preparing to go to bed in his home. He was held without charge for questioning.

The body of the victim, James F. Cleveland, 30, a deaf mute, was found buried beneath Laskowski's car in front of the house, officers said.

Laskowski told police he felt a bump as he drove home from work. When he got out, he added, he saw nothing and drove on without knowing Cleveland's body was pinned beneath the car.

A pedestrian who saw the accident directed police to Laskowski's home.

Feuding Tennessee Clans End Fighting On Television Show

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
New York, Dec. 15 (P)—The fightin' mountain boys of Hamilton county, Tennessee, are going to try to be more neighborly from now on.

Members of two feuding clans—the Parkers and the Harrises—met here in the big city last night on a radio-television show and agreed there'll be no more rough stuff.

Deputy Sheriff Hillis Hatfield was on hand to referee the peace negotiations.

He said the end of the "Daisy Mountain Feud" was the "best Christmas present" the area could have.

Three slayings and the wounding of seven other persons have been attributed to the feud in less than a year.

But all looked peaceful last night as Mrs. Ethel Parker shook hands with Francis Harris, 21, on Columbia Broadcasting System's televised show, "We, the People."

"I don't want to ever carry a gun," said Harris, "but if somebody aims to shoot me dead—I'm going to shoot him first. I work sawing timber. I don't want trouble with nobody."

"All right then," Hatfield said, "how about stoppin' all around? Would you two agree to settle this feud between your families right here?"

"Yes, I would," said Mrs. Parker.

"Yeah, I would too," said Harris, "and I hope Willie Lee's listenin'."

Hatfield said the feud came about because of a financial deal between Mrs. Parker's husband, Theodore, and Willie Lee Harris, Francis' brother.

FARMERS FETE BUSINESS MEN

Figy Speaker At Annual
Cornell Banquet

Delta county potato farmers last night were host to business men of Escanaba at the annual banquet program in Cornell town hall, attended by Charles Figy of Lansing, commissioner of the state department of agriculture, who was the principal speaker.

August Lundgaard of Cornell was toastmaster at the banquet program. The farmer hosts were those who had won awards this year in the Potato Booster association contest. The association is composed of business and professional men of Escanaba and Delta potato growers.

Commissioner Figy pointed out that only 12 per cent of the Upper Peninsula's area is cleared for agriculture, compared with 64 per cent of the Lower Peninsula. Many of the farm problems of the U. P. are those encountered in the past by the pioneers who first settled in Michigan.

The dairy future of the Upper Peninsula is bright, Figy said. He added that while the average increase in dairy production in the nation in the last 30 years has only kept pace with the population increase, in the U. P. dairy production has gone up 40 per cent.

A better job in dairying, and the production of a high quality potato, carefully graded before marketing, are the two most important goals for Upper Peninsula agriculture, Figy said. Potato production with its crop rotation, and dairying, go together for successful farming in Northern Michigan, he declared.

He complimented Delta county potato growers and the Potato Booster association. Pointing to the potato production average for the state of 109 bushels an acre, Figy said the highest average was in two U. P. counties—178 average an acre in Delta and Houghton.

This year, as in 1947, a Delta county grower became the state potato champion. Frank Falkies of Baldwin township produced 847 bushels an acre, a record which Figy believes may be a national high on unirrigated lands.

Also a speaker at the banquet meeting was George McIntyre, assistant to Figy, and well known to Delta county farmers for his dairy extension work in the Upper Peninsula before joining the staff of the state department of agriculture.

A television receiving tube made largely of metal is said to be the first successful tube of the type which can be manufactured on a continuous production basis. It is a 16-inch tube for direct-view home receiving sets.

Contributions Sought For Yule Basket Fund

An especial appeal to residents of the Escanaba area for more contributions for the Escanaba American Legion Christmas basket fund was made today by officers of the Cloverland post, who are preparing to distribute Yule food baskets to families of former servicemen in need.

"Contributions are coming in very slowly, and if the program is to be the success it has been for many years, more donations will be needed to fill the food baskets," C. Elmer Olson, post adjutant, said this morning.

"Although letters have been sent to previous donors, the response has not been as favorable as in the past," he pointed out. "We wish to stress that even one dollar contributions will be very greatly received."

Olson said that 190 requests for baskets have already been received. Last year, the local post distributed 156 baskets to needy families.

"Most of the letters we receive tell of illness and unemployment in the family and stress that just the simple gift of a basket of food will add immeasurably toward making the Christmas a real Christmas," he said.

Stores To Remain Open Three Nights For Yule Shoppers

Escanaba stores will remain open evenings until 9 p. m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 21 to 23, to accommodate shoppers. V. O. Wicks, chairman of the Christmas retail promotion committee, announced today.

Stores will close at 5:30 p. m. on Christmas eve and New Year's eve.

Plumbers Strike, Picket Employers

Seventeen plumbers and furnace men, employees of Moersch & Degan of 112 North 10th street and M. R. Oslund company of 504 Ludington, staged a walkout this morning and today formed picket lines in front of the two business places.

A company spokesman said in an election of Dec. 2 a strike vote was taken by the employees of the two firms, charging failure of the companies to recognize the Teamsters Union 328, A. F. L., as their bargaining agent. Arnold Alsten of Escanaba is business representative for the union.

The spokesman said that negotiations on wages, hours and working conditions had been under way and that union recognition was not one of the issues.

The employers have conferred several times, with the latest meeting lasting from 10 a. m. to late yesterday afternoon.

Both the union and the employers have submitted proposals toward an agreement. There was no announcement that labor mediation officials have been requested to arbitrate the dispute.

Nine of the striking plumbers and furnace men are employees of Moersch & Degan, and eight are employees of M. R. Oslund.

Other plumbing and heating firms in the city are not affected by the walkout.

Delta CROP Organized; Farmers Endorse Plan To Ship Food Overseas

Organization of a Delta county unit of the Christian Rural Overseas Program to help supply food for Europe's starving people was completed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of farmers, clergy, and other interested persons held in Catherine Bonifa's Technical school.

The Rev. Fr. Roland Dion of Flat Rock and the Rev. Serge Hummon of Rapid River were named co-chairmen of CROP for Delta county, representing the unity of religious leadership in the Christian Rural Overseas Program. The Rev. Gustav Lund of Escanaba is secretary.

Cooperation of all people regardless of their religious faith is the keynote of the drive to help feed the destitute peoples of Europe through the shipment of 3,500 carloads of food from America. The program has been endorsed by the Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, D. D., bishop of the diocese of Marquette, and every priest in the diocese will cooperate in the food campaign.

Christmas Gift

A steering committee was named to direct the county-wide appeal for cash contributions and food. The committee is composed of Fr. Dion, Rev. Hummon, Rev. Lund, Miss Maysie Campbell of Cornell, president of the Delta county 4-H Service Club; and J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent.

Committees will be set up in each of the 14 townships in Delta county, and these committees will be in charge of the solicitation of contributions and the collections. Names of those who will be approached to serve on the township committees were discussed at yesterday's meeting and the list of committees will be announced later.

The distribution of Christmas gift pledge cards is a part of the plan. Each rural family will be asked to make its pledge of a contribution toward CROP, and to hang this pledge card on its family Christmas tree. In this way the feeling of sharing with the destitute peoples overseas will be engendered and the farm family of Delta county will in spirit present a Christmas gift to a less fortunate family in Europe.

Drive in January

The Christmas gift idea will also be carried out by churches and organizations at holiday and community Christmas programs.

Actual solicitation for CROP will be made from January 10-15, when the collection of food contributions also will be made. The goal for Delta county will be one large carload of wheat, and crops contributions will be converted into cash through the cooperation of dealers in dairy and other farm products.

There are 1,250 farms in the county, and gifts will be solicited at each one, township by township. In addition there are expected to be contributions from residents of Escanaba and Gladstone. Communities within the townships will be solicited by the township committees.

SCHOOL BOARD RECEIVES GIFT

Kiwanis Gives $900 For Handicapped Children

The Escanaba board of education in regular meeting last night accepted with expressions of appreciation a gift of $900 from the Escanaba Kiwanis club to aid the handicapped children in special rooms of the public school system.

Kryn Bloom, Kiwanis club president, submitted the club's check and advised the board that $500 should be used to purchase a group hearing aid for students in the oral-deaf room; and that $400 go toward defraving the cost of the hot lunch program for the special rooms. The gift was from proceeds of the Kiwanis minstrel show.

Other business of the board of education included the following:

Appointment of Gordon Erforth as janitor at a salary of $2,200 a year.

Plan Scholarship

Approved awarding a diploma, as recommended by Senior High School Principal E. E. Edick, to Willard J. Hansen who completed his needed credits on general education development tests.

Held over to next meeting a proposal that $1,500 from the student loan fund be used to purchase two $1,000 bonds in the name of the school district in trust for the Escanaba High school activities fund. The present total in the fund, raised through student activities, was reported as $4,369.87.

The board also received a report from Supt. John Lemmer that the Trades & Labor Council wishes to offer a scholarship for an outstanding student majoring in work at Catherine Bonifa's Technical school. The proposal is expected to come before the board again when details of the scholarship plan have been worked out.

Architect Heard
Informal approval was given to a request of the city recreation department to establish ice rinks for young children at the Barr and Franklin school playgrounds. The PTA units of the school are to supply supervision. The board was assured the playground surface will not be harmed.

John E. Somerville, Green Bay architect, appeared before the board to discuss the features to be included in a new Senior high school building, if he is authorized to prepare the plans. A new Senior high school building is proposed for in bequests in the will of the late Mrs. Catherine Bonifa.

Supt. Lemmer, executor of the estate, advised Somerville that no action toward the construction of the school is expected within the next two years because of the building situation. Somerville is one of several architects to appear before the board of education in recent months.

Mrs. Chas. Johnson, 73, Dies On Tuesday After Long Illness

Mrs. Charles G. Johnson, 73, of 312 South 12th street died at 11:20 a.m. Tuesday at her home after a long illness.

Mrs. Johnson was born Feb. 22, 1875 in Dalstrand, Sweden and came to the United States when she was 19 years old. She had lived in Escanaba 54 years.

A member of Bethany Lutheran church, Mrs. Johnson is survived by her husband and one daughter, Miss Myrtle Johnson, a nephew, Berger E. Johnson, and two nieces, Amy and Ethel Johnson, all of Escanaba.

The body was taken to Anderson funeral home and will lie in state Thursday afternoon. Funeral services will be conducted from the funeral home at 2 p.m., Friday by Rev. Gustav Lund. Burial will be made in Lakeview cemetery.

Reckless Flier Fined And Grounded

A STUDENT PILOT in Menominee was fined $100 and costs this week for careless and foolhardy operation of his training plane over a county road near the Menominee airport. And then to make sure that this harebrained flier would not again endanger the lives of other people, the M&M Aviation company permanently grounded the 22 year old pilot.

The flier was arrested on complaint of a young woman motorist who reported that the flier piloted the plane at an extremely low altitude and twice dove his plane at her car. He was arrested under a state law that prohibits flying at less than 500 feet except for landings or takeoffs.

The action taken by the court and the supplementary action taken by the Menominee flying school deserves a generous round of applause from the general public. An airplane is no place for foolish antics. There are enough tragedies that are caused by mechanical failures and human errors without inviting more by plain tomfoolery.

Fortunately, nitwit pilots are rare. Most of the men and women who take up flying are intelligent people, who recognize the need for extreme caution and obedience to safety laws. Those who act differently should be promptly grounded — and for good, as in the case of the reckless Menominee pilot who dove his plane in a showoff gesture at a girl motorist.

Electoral College Outmoded, Unfair

THE RIDICULOUSNESS of the electoral college as a means for selecting the president of the United States was indelibly portrayed Monday when one of the Michigan electors cast his vote for Harry Truman, even though a majority of Michigan voters had supported Thomas Dewey. When the error was called to his attention, the elector changed his vote, commenting that he thought he was required to vote for the man who had won the election by virtue of the nationwide results.

The electoral college is as outmoded as hoop skirts and pantaloons. Undoubtedly an effort will be made in the next session of Congress to change it. Such a proposal deserves the support of all who recognize that the present system invites a denial of the basic concepts of democracy.

In any discussions for revising the electoral college, thought should be given to eliminating the electoral votes by states. The president of the United States should be selected by a majority vote of all the people and not by any complicated formula that actually disenfranchises a substantial segment of our people. A Republican in Alabama, for instance, is in reality disfranchised because his vote simply is meaningless. The same situation under normal circumstances would be equally true of a Democrat in a rock-ribbed Republican state, such as Vermont.

Under the electoral system, it is possible — in fact, it has already happened — for a man to be elected president of the United States even though an opponent may have received a larger popular vote. This situation hardly fulfills the principle of democracy.

Escanaba Needs A Community Tree

ESCANABA'S MAIN STREET is attractively decorated for the Christmas season, with evergreen boughs and colored lights strung across Ludington street at close intervals. The store windows twinkle with holiday trimmings, spreading Yuletide gaiety through the business area.

There is, however, something missing. It is the absence of a community Christmas tree on Ludington street. The city has erected a community tree at Rose Park in North Escanaba, which is proper, but a community tree should also be decorated downtown, preferably at the foot of Ludington street, where it can be seen the entire mile and a half length of the city's main business section.

We recall pre-war years when Escanaba's community Christmas tree at the foot of Ludington street, covered with ice and glowing with reflected light from colored floods was a delight to the public and the envy of visitors from other cities.

It is still not too late to fill this void in the community's holiday decoration scheme.

Model For Labor Peace

WE hope that a lot of people on both sides of the labor-management fence took note of the speech that AFL Vice President Matthew Woll made before the annual Congress of American Industry in New York.

"A true and reliable safeguard of free enterprise as well as the solution of our labor difficulties," said Mr. Woll, "is to make clear to all that it is the manifest duty of all free men to advance the common good by voluntary agreement and not by compulsion of law."

"If Americans fail to solve labor-management problems by co-operation and have to resort to compulsion, we will confess the failure of our system and give color to the claims of the Communists.

"Had management and labor in years past been fully aware of the importance of reaching collective understandings in safeguarding their rights and liberties, there would have been fewer attempts made through irritating, restrictive and compulsory forms of legislation affecting the rights of both."

Amen. Those are true and important words. And the setting, the speaker and the audience gave them added significance. Here was an executive of organized labor speaking to executives of industry about the past sins of both groups and about their consequences. His words were a model for the friendliness and moderation that both groups must practice if American industry is to grow and prosper in a free atmosphere.

Certainly the members of the National Association of Manufacturers, who made up Mr. Woll's audience, know that voluntary agreement is better than compulsion. They know the history of stubbornness, bitterness, crookedness and suppression on both sides that has brought government more and more into the labor-management picture. And most of them, we trust, are willing to admit that all the sin was not on the other side.

But it is one thing for management and labor to agree pleasantly at a convention meeting, and quite another to continue that agreement on ways and means across the table in contract negotiations or in their daily working relations.

And there is another problem. Nobody knows what sort of new rules the government will lay down for labor and management. For the voting strength of union labor and the financial strength of industrial executives are both strong political influences. No matter how much both sides may want to keep government out of collective bargaining, they cannot keep themselves out of the political process of choosing our government and its lawmakers.

Union labor has the advantage over management in politics today. Its members take valid credit for their part in electing a new Congress which almost certainly will be more favorable to their cause than was the last. It remains to be seen how strongly labor will press that advantage.

In this connection Mr. Woll's speech contained some statements that should encourage all concerned. The American Federation of Labor, he said, does not intend to use labor's advantage to force restrictive laws on management. And it should be noted that he referred to "revision" and not "repeal" of the Taft-Hartley Act, and never even mentioned the Wagner Act.

The future of labor-management peace and progress will look brighter if those views prevail in the new regulations that Congress probably will draft.

BRIGHT SPOT, DARK PICTURE (Christian Science Monitor)

The growing wave of censorship of "comic" books is a measure of the public indignation against the criminal sensationalism peddled to American youth by unscrupulous publishers. But censorship is always a dangerous remedy. It tends to grow with use as rapidly as the depraved taste it aims, in this case, to combat.

Some time ago the Association of Comics Magazine Publishers adopted a code of standards which, by its very "don'ts," showed to what low estate the industry had fallen in practice. Now it has followed up this initial self-regulation by enlisting a distinguished committee to help raise the level of the comics. In this it is to be once more commended for providing a healthy alternative to censorship.

Yet the association represents less than 40 per cent of the entire comic industry. The worst comics, by the nature of things, are to be found among the others. Do these unregenerate crime-peddlers really want censorship?

American paper money can be folded 5000 times without cracking or breaking. But, what's the use? The good wife would still find it.

A timely health hint for some of our younger generation—go on home!

MORE ABOUT LONG "U"

Q. Why did that certain radio producer keep saying "see-OO-zn" for the name Susan on a recent radio theater broadcast? —L. A.

A. He and many other broadcasters take the dictionaries and Hollywood "diction" teachers too seriously. The pronunciation "see-OO-zn" is a too-precise and exaggerated way of pronouncing the "oo" as "yoo." We are also hearing "dee-OO-ee" for Dewey, and "Iee-OO-iss" for Lewis.

Now it is true that Merriam Webster's does give the "oo" the long sound (yoo) in Susan, Dewey, Lewis and in hundreds of such words as suit, suicide, lute, dude, news. But, and this is very important, Webster's does not state that the "oo" sound in such names and words is incorrect.

On the contrary, in paragraph 242, page 111 of the pronunciation section, Webster's points out, quite correctly, that "oo" is "widely used (in America) by the educated."

This is confirmed by the extremely accurate and realistic Pronouncing Dictionary by Kenyon and Knott, which lists as first choice "soot" for suit, "SOO-i-cide" for suicide, "loot" for lute, etc.

The American College Dictionary, another realistic new dictionary, gives complete sanction to the "oo" sound in such words as student, studio, news, nude, duty, etc. "Soot" is the only pronunciation shown for suit; also "loot" for lute, "uh-SOOM" for assume, "pree-ZOOM" for pre-suicide, "loo" for lute, etc.

Dixiecrats Will Not Lose Out

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington. — In the aftermath of the Nov. 2 triumph a lot of brave talk was heard about how the Dixiecrats and other turncoats would be read out of a purified Democratic party. That talk has gone with the wind and the prescription as of now is: More of the same.

To many in the south this is not an academic question. On the contrary it can mean political life or death.

Alabama is a good example of how sharply the issue of the Dixiecrats cuts across certain political fortunes. The Dixiecrat organization in Alabama was bossed by wealthy corporation lawyers with important connections in the north.

Alabama is a good example of how sharply the issue of the Dixiecrats cuts across certain political fortunes. The Dixiecrat organization in Alabama was bossed by wealthy corporation lawyers with important connections in the north.

These same men and the interests they represent are bitter enemies of Alabama's Senator Lister Hill because of the liberal line that Hill takes on most questions. One of the chief Dixiecrats, James Simpson, a corporation lawyer, nearly defeated Hill four years ago. The same crowd is already planning to gang up on him two years from now.

OPPOSED PRESIDENT TRUMAN

The irony is, of course, that Hill was so overawed by Dixiecrat strength that he came out in opposition to President Truman before the convention. So did his colleague, Senator John Sparkman, who was up for re-election.

National officials of the Democratic party profess to be afraid of the repercussions if they should intervene in state organizations if they should intervene in congressional committees. What this adds up to is that direction of six Senate committees will go to the south.

Appropriations, foreign relations, District of Columbia, finance and expenditures in executive departments will all have chairmen from the south. In addition, Sen. Burnet R. Maybank of South Carolina will almost certainly be acting chairman of banking and currency, since Sen. Robert F. Wagner of New York will, because of continuing invalidism, be unable to take his seat.

Also, the chairmanship on agriculture will go to Sen. Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma and Sen. Millard Tydings of Maryland will take over the armed services committee. These are border states with a strong southern infusion in opinion and attitude.

This is, of course, an unreal and abnormal disproportion. Considered from the point of view of population, the unbalance is seen to be even greater. On the seniority basis not a single Senate chairmanship will go to any of the great population centers in the Northeast and Middle West.

More than half of the prizes go to the sparsely populated South and border, with the West coast and its great new population growth being entirely left out. In the House the unbalance is not nearly so great.

McKELLAR NEARLY 80

The consequence of seniority in the Senate is that six committee chairmanships go to men 70 years of age or older. The veteran is Sen. Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee who takes over appropriations. McKellar has already begun to fulminate in the press about what he means to do when he has the reins of power.

Next month McKellar will be 80 years old. During the campaign he put on such a performance as has not been seen since "Broken Blossoms" when he announced his split with his old mentor, Boss Ed Crump, and came out for President Truman with a violin on stage playing "Hearts and Flowers."

We hope that every doctor, in and out of the Army, will take this message to heart, and will cooperate with us in a steady improvement of the defenses which we know we must prepare.

ATOMIC MEDICINE — Logical

— The booklet is called "A Message from the Surgeon General, Army Medical Department," and there is a foreword by Major General R. W. Bliss, surgeon general of the U. S. Army. The surgeon general's introduction is in keeping with the clinical incisiveness of the report, and its horror is increased by the objective analysis of the atomic bomb and its effect upon the human being. The closing sentence of the introduction is fitting for the ghastly series of reports that follow:

"We hope that every doctor, in and out of the Army, will take this message to heart, and will cooperate with us in a steady improvement of the defenses which we know we must prepare."

Twenty Years Ago

HORROR STORY — "What You Should Know About the Atomic Bomb" will never become a best seller, but it is one of the most horrifying dissertations assembled in many years. Photographs of Japanese victims of atomic bombs dropped at Hiroshima and Nagasaki illustrate the text adequately.

Manistique—Miss Carol Hopkins has arrived from Grand Traverse to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopkins.

Gladstone—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Marquette are the parents of a daughter born yesterday at St. Francis hospital, Mrs. Marquette is the former June Snyder.

Gladstone—Miss Ruth Johnson, student of Villa St. Scholastica college in Duluth, has arrived to spend the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Johnson.

Protective — Since the reader may be fascinated, but certainly not entertained, by recounting the book's description of the effect of atomic explosions upon the human body, we will mention only that injuries are caused primarily by the initial blast, by flash burns, and by nuclear radiation. This will save the sensibility of those who object to photographs and drawings showing hemorrhage of the retina, degeneration of the elements in the bone marrow, the destruction of sperm-producing cells, the keloids, contractures and ulcers. Another photograph shows three children with bald heads bowed and thin arms bandaged. They illustrate "similar degrees of epilation resulting from equal exposure to gamma radiation."

They tried it. They welded four flanges to a crossbar, fixed it to a tank—and the 15-ton vehicle pried itself upright. The German anti-tank gunners then could rip us open like sardine cans. Our tank guns were pointed at the sky—useless. We couldn't defend ourselves."

The problem was to find a way for the tanks to force a path through the hedgerows, guns firing, instead of clambering over them. At first combat engineers were sent out on foot to blast holes in the hedgerows. But they were picked off by German infantry.

"One day my commanding officer called a meeting of non-coms to get suggestions," said Culin. "I didn't know anything about mechanics or engineering. But I had seen a lot of German iron roadblocks."

"I suggested putting sharpened stakes of iron from these roadblocks on our tanks so we could dig through the hedgerows."

They tried it. They welded four flanges to a crossbar, fixed it to a tank—and the 15-ton vehicle pried itself upright.

"Gen. Bradley heard about it and came down to watch a demonstration," said Culin.

The device caught the Germans completely by surprise, and the American Army made a successful breakthrough of the Nazi lines at St. Lo on July 25th, 1944.

"Later they called me, and three others back to corps headquarters and gave us the Legion of Merit for the invention," said Culin.

Culin lost his left foot and had part of his right thigh blown off a few weeks later in the Huertgen Forest when he stepped on a German mine and fell on another.

Against Us — The last paragraph is a summary of the international outlook of the authors:

"Atomic warfare presents a truly terrible outlook. It is our duty to push to the utmost any procedure that could possibly reduce its effectiveness against us."

Mrs. Irene Harding was an out of town guest from Manistique.

C. Y. O. Christmas Party
Members of the C. Y. O. of St. Andrew's church will have their Christmas party at the civic center or Wednesday evening. Gifts will be exchanged, games and lunch will be enjoyed by all members and the pastor, Rev. Jerome Larson.

Girl Scout News
As has been the custom in the past years, the Girl Scouts will make about two dozen wreaths to be sent to the Percy Jones hospital in Battle Creek. Greens for the wreaths were gathered and the girls with their leader, Miss Fleming, planned on making them at their meeting this week.

Altar Society
Mrs. J. E. Schaefer was hostess at the meeting of the Altar Society.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

The Missus "Ducks" Out

Slim Hartman took his missus duck hunting the other day. And after five hours of sitting in a swamp, she'd had enough! Going home, Slim reminded her good-naturedly of the time she'd taken him to a woman novelist's lecture, and insisted that he sit it out.

So now the missus and Slim have an understanding. No more duck hunting for her—no more lectures for him. They decided each to his own taste.

It's because they can agree to disagree like that, I think, that

SAULT FUTURE WAS FORECAST

Gov. Doty Wrote About It 126 Years Ago

Green Bay, Wis.—Some of the future importance of Sault Ste. Marie was seen by James Duane Doty, 126 years ago, according to the former Wisconsin Territory governor's journal, now owned by the Neville public museum.

The museum is reprinting Doty's journal in its "Program of Activities." The statesman described the rapids and islands, then a bar on navigation on Lake Superior in the section published in the current issue of the museum's quarterly.

This is what Doty said of the place on July 27, 1822:

Describes Many Passages
It is useless to attempt to describe the channel we took among these islands. There are many passages through them, in any of which there is water sufficient for barges and canoes.

"Several miles above the place we left we had a view of Lake George, on the bar at the foot of which the 'Michigan' was lying at anchor. This is within 18 miles of the Sault, and may almost be called the head of ship navigation for vessels drawing more than six feet of water cannot cross the bar."

"This obstruction it is thought may be easily removed and a safe channel formed, it being altogether composed of clay."

That the Michigan peninsula was cold even then is also reported by Doty.

"Chilled With Cold"

That July 27 he wrote: "When we landed I was chilled with cold, although dressed with sufficient clothes for winter."

Gov. Doty was born in Salem, N. Y., and was an attorney in the Michigan supreme court when he was 19 years old. He was appointed judge for the Michigan territory, which included Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Minnesota, and the Dakotas, in 1823. President Tyler later appointed him second territorial governor of Wisconsin. President Lincoln named him governor of Utah in 1861. He died in office.

SURVEY SHOW MAN'S HABITS

Selling Programs Have Writer Dizzy

By ROBERT C. RUARK

New York—Mr. Average American, the target for radio commercials, department store advertisements, the bureau of internal revenue and all the other merchants of everything, everywhere, is getting so departmentalized that it's small wonder you can't see his face.

Mr. Kinsey has put you privy to his boudoir. The readership experts have decided what he wants to see in the paper, and Hooper supposedly can tell you what he likes on the air. The psychologists and criminologists and sociologists know all about his inner turmoil—whether he is subconsciously in love with his bicycle, why he hits his grandma with the hammer, why he is surly on the subway. Mr. Average America is nothing but a flock of pigeons surrounded by propaganda.

I have here a report on "the man market", an exhaustive survey of that harassed gentleman, the male consumer, that has finally wrapped the poor fellow in a mummy swaddle of second-guess. If you boys will just hold still, papa will tell you what Crossley has to say about you. You prefer underwear without sleeves. Garters are anathema to 73 per cent of you. Most of you sleep in both ends of your pajamas, summer and winter. You like blue suits best, and it makes no difference whether they lap over double or button front. White shirts set off your manly beauty—which is enhanced by the fact that 40 per cent of you shave once a day.

You smell right high, too, because 47 per cent use foo-foo water after shaving, 32 per cent slick down the hair with fortified bear grease, 28 per cent gargle regularly, and 22 per cent use deodorants. You chew sen-sen or cloves occasionally, too, because 68 per cent do not shriek and flee when somebody suggests a noggin of booze.

No wonder your suit sags, because 93 per cent carry wallets, 34 per cent carry key-cases, and none of you ever throw away any papers. You wear a tie-clip, 44 per cent, and two thirds of you insist on buying your own neckties. Eighty per cent of you buy your own beer. Sixty-seven per cent buys its own toothbrush, and 89 per cent purchases its own razor blades. You like the old blade-razor better than the electric chinmover.

From time to time I have a horrible dream—a dream that I am the composite American man.

LINE REMOVAL COSTS FIXED

Price To St. Thomas Parish Set At $2375

The city council meeting in special session Tuesday afternoon fixed a price of $2375 for moving city power lines on the site of the proposed St. Thomas church in North Escanaba and guaranteed this price until June 30, 1949.

The action was taken in response to an inquiry from Bishop Noa. The city has an easement across the property for power lines but is willing to remove the poles provided the parish pays the actual cost of the transfer.

City Manager A. V. Aronson declared that the city has no desire to profit on the undertaking. The estimated cost includes the actual cost of materials, plus the customary 10 percent charge for maintenance of the city's purchasing department, the cost of labor and a 15 percent continuation charge which includes the city's cost for retirement pensions for its employees' vacations, sick leave, etc.

8 Pay Raise Voted

The city manager explained that the percentage increases over and above actual cost of materials and labor do not constitute a profit on city work, but merely represent overhead. He said that this formula is used for all city work, including work done by one city department for other departments of the city.

In setting June 30 as the deadline for guaranteeing the $2375 cost figure, the council indicated that it could not guarantee this figure beyond that date because of the unstable economic conditions. Some of the materials required for the job involve delays of as much as four months in delivery, Aronson said.

The council also approved a $6 a month pay increase for city employees, effective December 1. The increase is based upon higher living costs. The council emphasized that it recognizes that cost of living wage increases to city employees have been lagging behind price boosts but that this factor would also be taken into consideration when the economic trend reverses itself.

Duncan A. McRae Dies At Hospital

Duncan A. McRae, 67, of 226 North 15th street, died early this afternoon at St. Francis hospital. The body was taken to the Degnan funeral home. Arrangements for the services are incomplete. Details will be announced tomorrow.

Mr. McRae was a retired streetcar conductor, a veteran in the service of the Escanaba Traction Co., and was widely known in Escanaba.

Daily Collection Of Refuse Started For 24 Merchants

Daily collection of garbage, paper and other refuse is now being made by the city at approximately 24 business places that are paying the increased costs, Loren Jenkins, city engineer, reported this morning.

For the past few weeks refuse collection throughout the business area have been on a three times per week basis but effective this week, the collections will revert to a once a week basis for all business firms not included in the daily collection schedule.

A survey conducted recently indicated that many of the business firms did not favor daily collections at extra costs.

All She Wants For Christmas Is Her Lost False Teeth

Chicago, Dec. 15 (P)—All Mrs. Marie Houlihan, 46, wants for Christmas, she whispered to Superior Judge Joseph Sabath, is her false teeth.

She appeared in court yesterday with her attorneys, Joseph H. and Norman Becker, seeking Judge Sabath's aid.

The dentures disappeared on Dec. 3, the attorneys said, and Mrs. Houlihan has been losing weight. She also is displeased at the prospect of not being able to eat turkey, candy, and nuts on Christmas day.

Judge Sabath ordered Mrs. Houlihan's husband, John, 48, against whom she has a divorce bill pending, to produce the teeth if he has them. He is in the Cook county jail working out a $50 fine for breaking into Mrs. Houlihan's home.

William Miletta, jail superintendent, said Houlihan thought he could find them if he could get out of jail to make a search. Now the Beckers said they would try to get him out long enough to look for Mrs. Houlihan's teeth.

Hearing On Ouster Of Jackson Prison Physicians Started

Lansing, Dec. 15 (P)—The Civil Service commission today started hearing the appeals of two physicians at the state prison of Southern Michigan suspended by Corrections Commissioner Joseph W. Sanford.

Sanford suspended Drs. De Witt C. Adams and Lawrence M. Rutz Sept. 28. He charged them with neglect of duty in failing to attend promptly to an inmate who hung himself in his cell. The inmate, Chris Novakoff of Lansing, died.

The commissioner charged Dr. Adams with "improper and callous conduct through failure to respond in an emergency involving the attempted suicide of a prisoner."

Dr. Lutz was charged with "lack of cooperation with the warden and the commissioner and neglect of duty" and "lack of responsibility in carrying out duties imposed by his profession."

ESCAPE IS MISTAKE

Jackson (P)—An inmate of a Southern Michigan prison farm learned Tuesday he made a costly mistake when he made a get-away a few weeks ago with only a month of his term to serve. He was sentenced to an additional 18 months to 4½ years for the jail break.

Pfc. Vance J. Tatrow Rites Set For Saturday

The body of Pfc. Vance J. Tatrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tatrow, of Garden, who lost his life in service with the U. S. Army in World War II, will be brought to Escanaba and taken to the Boyce funeral home Friday morning. Services will be held in the European theater of action June 4, 1944.

He was wounded twice and was awarded a Purple Heart and Purple Heart cluster.

The Garden serviceman was a member of the congregation of St. John the Baptist church in Garden.

The body will be removed from the Boyce funeral home to St. John the Baptist church in Garden, where services will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday with the Fr. Schaffer officiating. Burial will be in the new Catholic cemetery in Garden.

Military services will be conducted by the Garden American Legion post.

Besides his widow and parents, he is survived by three brothers, Joseph and Hal of Garden, and Blondie, of Iron Mountain and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Baldrica, of Iron Mountain.

Glider Saves Six Passengers From Wrecked Transport

Fairbanks, Alaska, Dec. 15 (P)—Six occupants of a crash-landed C-47 transport were snatched to safety from a frozen river yesterday in a glider pickup rescue.

The pilot of the C-54, which dropped and picked up the glider, described the maneuver as extremely hazardous. The pilot, Lt. Col. Eugene Strouse, explained the curvature of the river, trees and terrain afforded less than a 500-yard straightaway run at 10 feet altitude for the snatch.

The C-47 made a belly landing on the river in Yukon territory in 20-below-zero weather. The pilot said a dwindling gas supply forced him to land.

Search craft located the plane and the C-54 towing a glider took off on the rescue mission. On arrival at the crash scene, the glider was cut loose and its pilot circled to a landing within 75 yards of the transport.

A snatch frame was erected across the river. The C-54 made four passes before contact was made and the glider with seven men aboard was jerked into the air.

Ships And Planes Warned Of Atomic Tests At Eniwetok

By ELTON C. FAY

Washington, Dec. 15 (P)—The United States soon will issue a new warning to ships and airplanes to stay far away from its Eniwetok atomic weapons proving grounds.

The present "keep out" order was issued about a year ago, prior to the tests of three atomic weapons last spring. It was worded to cover only the calendar year 1948 and thus expires at midnight December 31.

An atomic energy commission spokesman said that while the new order has not yet been drafted it undoubtedly will be prepared within the next few days.

This time, the order will be phrased to run indefinitely.

Actually, the test area is covered by two zones. The inner "restricted zone" embraces Eniwetok lagoon and the atoll on which a permanent weapon testing laboratory has been built.

This zone is in the center of a "danger area" encompassing about 39,000 square miles of water. It is the one to be covered by the new order.

In setting aside the inner zone, the United States did so permanently and officially informed the United Nations of the action.

Eniwetok is in the Marshall Island group, about 200 miles west and south of Bikini, where the 1946 "operation crossroads" tests of two bombs against naval vessels were conducted.

Bay City Pastor
Goes to Marquette

Marquette, Mich.—The Rev. John A. Alford, rector of Grace and St. John's Episcopal churches in Bay City for nearly four years, has accepted appointment to St. Paul's Episcopal church, Marquette.

He will assume his new duties Jan. 5, 1949.

Mr. Alford went to Bay City in February, 1945, from Detroit, where he was a rector of the Church of Our Savior eight years.

He was ordained to the diaconate in East Tawas, July 5, 1925, by the Rt. Rev. Herman Page, then Episcopal bishop of Michigan.

In 1930 he was ordained to the priesthood in St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit.

From 1929 to 1935 Mr. Alford was missionary in charge of St. John's church, Sandusky, and rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Lexington. He was priest in charge of St. Hilda's church, River Rouge, from 1936 to 1937.

After studying at Nasbath Collegiate, Wis., and Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, he completed theological training at Nasbath House in Wisconsin in 1929. He was married in 1931 to the former Mildred C. Polaski at Victory Chapel, St. John, Delafield, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Bessonon and their son, Elmer, Jr., are leaving tomorrow to attend the services.

Pvt. Bessonon was born December 1, 1918. He was with the 68th Armored Infantry.

Surviving are his wife and one son, Duane, his parents, two sisters, Mrs. Leo Paulio of East Lansing and Mrs. Ed Aho of Hubbard, and one brother, Elmer, Jr.

Bonnie Charles
Christened Today

London, Dec. 15 (UPI)—Princess Elizabeth's month-old baby who may some day be king is being christened today—Charles Philip Arthur George. He will be known as Prince Charles of Edinburgh.

The church of England ceremony this afternoon at Buckingham Palace will be conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

London morning newspapers nicknamed the child "Bonnie Prince Charlie." Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express noted "he may be King Charles III".

The historic "Bonnie Prince

Charles" was a grandson of King Charles II's brother, James II, and a pretender to the throne. He came from French exile in 1745 and led Scottish Highlanders in a vain fight for the crown of George II.

The name, Charles, was the personal choice of both Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, the father.

Eight relatives will stand as sponsors at the simple family christening ceremony. His ailing grandfather, King George VI will attend the services to be held in a palace stateroom.

The baby will wear a lace christening robe and the satin petticoat will be sprinkled from a lily-embossed silver gilt font, both traditional for royal christenings since the time of his great-great-grandmother, Queen Victoria.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nault, 306 South 10th street, are the parents of a daughter, weighing six pounds and three ounces, born at 6:16 p.m. December 11 at St. Francis hospital. The baby is the first child in the Nault family.

OF WORLD NEED*CROP Organization To Sponsor Presentation

In an effort to arouse more interest in the CROP campaign in Schoolcraft county, movies will be shown, depicting conditions in Europe and Asia, which the Christian Rural Overseas Program is seeking to alleviate.

These films, taken without any pre-arrangement in the war stricken areas, show conditions as they actually exist and are being shown for the purpose of enlisting support in a relief program sponsored jointly and in full cooperation of both Catholic and Protestant churches.

E. T. King, chairman of CROP in Schoolcraft county, announces that the movies will be shown at the court house on Friday evening and asks that the people of Manistique and vicinity make a special effort to attend.

The idea behind CROP, he explains, is that rural areas of the area give a portion of their crops to be sent to the countries in dire need. Inasmuch as Schoolcraft county's principle crop is potatoes and this commodity cannot very well be shipped, the local committee has decided to ship a carload of flour. He states that many more people will have to enroll in the effort before this objective can be attained.

An appropriation to enable the Youth center to reopen and expression of a favorable attitude toward establishment of a national guard unit in Manistique were among the more important matters considered at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening. The rest of the matters taken up in the short session were of a routine nature.

It was brought to the attention of the council that the Youth center, which failed to reopen this fall, is without funds to carry on. The councilmen in their discussion generally agreed that this institution served a commendable purpose and voted an appropriation to the Manistique Recreation Board which will administer, under the direction of Recreational Director Thor Reque, the disposition of the funds. The time of the opening of the center will be left to the discretion of the Recreation Board.

Harvey Quick appeared before the board to ask the council to voice its approval of the proposal that a national guard be established in Manistique. The council members individually expressed approval of the idea and it was voted that the city clerk be instructed to write a letter so stating to the state national guard headquarters. Mr. Quick stated that he is asking various civic and service organizations to write letters expressing similar sentiment.

A milk report showing the result of tests of Manistique's milk supply made by the county sanitarian for the month of November, was submitted to the council for perusal. The bacteria count in all but two of the tests was low and satisfactory.

A report of the social welfare office showing the amount expended in the city for direct relief, disclosed that $801.36 had been expended by that office for relief in the city.

A street light was ordered to be placed at the rear of the telephone building where there is a parking lot.

There was considerable discussion as to what could be done to relieve a situation on Maple street across the street from the Oak theatre where there has been a parking problem for years. Residents along that street complain that often their driveways are blocked by cars parked there, often up to late at night. The council came to no decision and agreed to take up the problem at another council meeting.

ADAGIO NUMBER—Gladstone had trouble winning its first football triumph in Coach Eldon Keil's 25th year of coaching, but the first basketball win came a little easier. Here you see Jim Schram, scrappy Brave guard, looking for all the world like an adagio dancer as he blocks Kenneth "Snuffy" Smith, Manistique guard. He thought Smith was going to shoot, but Smith fooled him. He pivoted away and passed to a teammate in the clear. It was a neat play, but Gladstone won the ball game, 42-37. The Braves go to Munising tomorrow night.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS "It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Because of a previous engagement with the subject of night football at the Escanaba school board meeting, we missed the Gladstone "Cappy" Keil dinner last night, but we have it on good authority from a usually reliable source—the horse's mouth, no less—that it was a super affair.

Joe Poffenberger was in rare form as master of ceremonies, and he called on no less than 10 of the visiting dignitaries—C. C. Watson, Doc Miller, Bill Cook, et cetera. We chuckled this morning when our usually reliable source told us about Bob Villemure, the Munising mentor.

Bob was one of the last to be called on, it seems, and he had been listening all evening to glowing words of tribute to the one and only Keil, to the attributes of the genial "Cappy" as "both coach and man," and to the ferocity, fight and mastery of fundamentals of his athletic teams. It was all very flattering.

When Bob was finally called on, so we are told, he responded with a bit of comedy relief by saying that "knowing 'Cappy' all these years and playing against his teams hasn't been a pleasure at all."

"In fact," he said, "I can't think of anything good to say about 'Cappy'!"

It got a big laugh, and Keil took it right in stride, as he did the previous glowing tributes.

The story isn't quite finished.

We'd like to be in the Munising gym tomorrow night when Coach Villemure's Mustangs are host to Coach Keil's Gladstone Braves.

Maybe that's what Villemure was thinking about.

Cleveland Indians traded Pitchers Joe Haynes, Ed Klieman and First Baseman Ed Robinson to Washington for Pitcher Early Wynn and First Sacker Mick Vernon. No cash was involved.

Chicago Cubs traded First Baseman Ed Waitkus and Pitcher Hank Borowy to the Philadelphia Phillies in a straight player deal for Pitchers Dutch Leonard and Walt Dubiel. The Cubs also sold Pitcher Hank Wyse to their Los Angeles Pacific Coast league farm club.

Philadelphia Phillies purchased righthander Ken Trinkle from the New York Giants and sold outfielder-infielder Carvel (Bama) Rowell to the Giants' Minneapolis American Association team.

New York Yankees traded First Baseman Steve Souchok to the Chicago White Sox for Outfielder Jim Delsing and a player to be named later.

Boston Braves signed Waldon Williams, 18 year old Negro infielder. Williams, a New Yorker, will be assigned to a Boston farm club.

U. P. American Legion Pin Tourney Feb. 5-20

Ishpeming, Dec. 15—Compiled averages as of Dec. 15 will be used as the basis for handicap figures in the first annual Upper Peninsula American Legion bowling tournament on the Sportland alleys here the weekends of Feb. 5-20, 1949.

The tournament was conceived during the U. P. Legion convention in July and Ishpeming was named as the site for the first tourney, open to Legion members only.

Sites for future tournaments will be rotated among U. P. cities, according to Arnold W. Sundblad, Ishpeming, tournament secretary. Legion posts desiring the tournament next year should make the matter known prior to the tournament and bowlers will vote on the site.

'Cappy' Keil Honored; Clark Captain

Gladstone, Dec. 15—Harland Clark, halfback on the 1948 Gladstone high school football eleven, was named captain-elect for 1949 by his teammates at the 26th annual recognition banquet sponsored last night by the Rotary club. Harland is a junior.

Tribute was paid to Eldon Keil, who is serving his 25th year here as athletic coach.

A group of coaches and officials from this area were guests at the dinner and each had words of praise for "Cappy" as both "coach and man."

Members of the 1924 football team were invited and 12 of the 24 members were in attendance.

Joseph J. Poffenberger, president of the sponsoring organization, presided as toastmaster, ably assisted by James T. Jones, chairman of the boys work committee, and Wallace C. Cameron, superintendent of schools.

Laud Coach 'Cappy'

A delicious turkey dinner was prepared and served by the home economics department of Gladstone high school.

"Coach Keil's teams are always strong on blocking and tackling and they have given us the toughest competition we have met in the Upper Peninsula," declared C. Watson, athletic director at Ishpeming.

Others present and called on included Bill Cook, athletic director and John Kelly, athletic official, of Manistique; Bob Villermure of Munising; Dr. E. L. Miller of Gwinn; Coaches George Rutherford and Jim Rouman and Ted Baldwin, official of Escanaba; Oscar Wassberg, coach of Negaunee and Leo Brunelle, superintendent at Bark River-Harris school and former coach.

'CAPPY' KEIL
Gladstone Coach

All lauded the local mentor and the quality and sportsmanship of the teams he has produced in his quarter century here.

Messages of regret were read from other coaches who had been invited but because of various reasons were unable to attend. They included Tim Barry of Vulcan, Eddie Chambers of Crystal Falls, Allan Ronberg of Norway and Lloyd Gordon, Detroit, under whom Keil served his first year.

Lettermen Introduced

Letters had not arrived but lettermen were introduced. They included Capt. Dick Skoglund, Ray Alwarden, Robert Beaudry, William Beveridge, Lawrence Boden, Harland Clark, Robert Cole, Phil Creten, Marvin Jandro, Stanley Jugo, Larry LaPlant, Jerry Londo, William Sundling, Ralph McGahey, Donald Pada, Peter Peterson, Jim Schram, Dick Stade and Rex Stowe.

Seven of the group named are seniors. They are Skoglund, Beaudry, Alwarden, Boden, Londo, Peterson and Stowe.

While the season was not too successful from a standpoint of wins and losses, it was a team that never quit trying and for this Coach Keil praised the eleven and thanked the boys for their cooperation during the season.

Captain-elect Clark was heard in a brief talk as was Dick Skoglund, retiring captain. The latter also presented Coach Keil with a new bowling ball as an expression of appreciation on the part of members of the 1948 team.

Out-Of-Town Night Football Approved For Eskymo Eleven

The Escanaba school board has approved out-of-town night football for the Escanaba high school eleven.

This action, which reverses the stand expressed at its meeting last October, was taken at the board's regular December session in the Escanaba junior high school last night.

By unanimous vote on a motion offered by Gus Peterson and seconded by Alfred LaBranche, the board authorized the Escanaba high school principal to schedule out-of-town night football games when and where he desires.

Thus, the board assured continuation of the Escanaba policy of playing out-of-town night football games with opponents equipped for night play and playing afternoons games here with those same opponents.

Policy Had Changed

This policy had been changed in October when John A. Lemire, Escanaba superintendent of schools, was authorized by the board to direct Edward E. Edick, Escanaba high school principal, to inform school authorities at Sault Ste. Marie, Kingsford, Menominee, Marinette and Ironwood that Escanaba did not desire to play night football away from home.

The move was largely an aftermath of the Escanaba-Menominee game in Menominee Saturday night, October 2, when several Escanaba students did not return home from Menominee until the wee, small hours. Escanaba is on Eastern Standard time. Menominee is on Central Standard time. The game did not start until 9 p.m. Escanaba time, and a dance was held in the Menominee gym after the night game.

Response to Edick's edict, as it was facetiously referred to in some quarters, indicated that Menominee, Marinette, Soo, Kingsford and Ironwood would rather drop Escanaba from their schedules than agree to playing the Eskymos in the afternoon only.

Large Investment

Reference was made by some to large expenditures ($15,000 at the Soo and approximately that much at Menominee) for night football equipment, an aversion toward Escanaba's stand which would prevent use of such equipment and a desire by some to continue traditional rivalries.

In response to this quite unanimous reaction, the board decided to reverse its stand. It was indicated at last night's meeting that the board's general policy toward night football was unchanged, but the consensus was that it did not want to drop traditional opponents, particularly Menominee and Marinette.

Menominee school authorities have expressed willingness to co-operate to the extent of playing on Friday nights instead of Saturday, setting ahead the game starting time and doing everything possible to expedite the return of student fans to Escanaba.

Edick had received answers from Roland S. Strolle, Kingsford; R. Ernest Dear, Ironwood; William C. Godson, Marinette; Harold W. Bruce, Sault Ste. Marie, and M. W. Robinson, Menominee, all high school principals.

As far as 1949 is concerned, the board's action means that Escanaba probably will play night games at Marinette and Kingsford next season. Menominee, Soo and Ironwood are slated to play afternoon games in Escanaba in 1949.

Cooks Trips Nahma Quint In Overtime

Escanaba, Dec. 15—By the narrow margin of three points in the overtime, the Cooks high school quintet defeated a hard-fighting band of Nahma cagers to spoil what otherwise would have been a perfect night. It was the dedication of Nahma's new and spacious gymnasium in the new Community building.

Before a crowd of almost 500 fans here last night, Nahma and Cooks fought to a 31-all tie during the regulation playing time and in the overtime, Cooks pifled up eight counters to five for Nahma to win, 39-36. Keith Cutler was the individual star of the game as he paced the Cooks to triumph with 15 points, including seven field goals. His mate, Popour, had 15 more, but he missed nine free throws.

Vernon Roddy, Nahma ace, topped the scorers with 17 points.

Nahma held a 6-5 edge at the quarter but was behind, 10-9, at the intermission. It forged into a commanding 23-19 lead going into the fourth quarter but during that period the Cooks boys closed the gap.

A Boy Scout flag ceremony was held during the dedication program before the game. William Acker, of Bay de Nocquet company, made a short dedication speech.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to all the kind relatives, neighbors and friends who assisted us during our recent bereavement. We are very grateful to Rev. Fr. Arnold Thompson for his consoling words and other manifestations of sympathy, to the children of the deceased, school to those who served as pallbearers, to those who furnished their cars, sent floral and spiritual offerings and all others who aided us in so many ways. The memory of these acts of kindness will always remain with us.

Signed:

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT ROUSE AND FAMILY
